

Do Not Use These Tools

Examples of tools that are not allowed on the premises:

Establishment and Contiguous Owners: Use of skin cutting instruments is considered Unprofessional Conduct and can subject you to a fine, probation, suspension, and/or revocation. The presence of such instruments creates a presumption of the instrument's use.

Establishment Employees: Any employee present at the time of inspection that is found with a skin cutting instrument at their workstation or is found using a skin cutting instrument can also be subject to discipline.

NOTE: The Idaho Barber and Cosmetology Services Licensing Board does not endorse or approve any specific tools. The tools shown above do not meet the current requirements for use by any Board licensees or in any Board licensed establishment in the State of Idaho.
