Board Member Bryce Olberding offered a synopsis of the Council of Landscape Architectural Registration Board's (CLARB) preliminary meeting. CLARB is streamlining the road to licensure across the states and updating the model law to minimize reciprocity for licensing with other states.

The purpose of this special meeting is to touch base and make sure there is consensus moving forward with the CLARB meeting on April 20, 2022. Board Member Olberding clarified he and Chairman Breckon will attend the April 20th meeting.

Board Member Olberding is interested in knowing how many landscape architects without experience have been licensed in Idaho. Executive Officer Michael Hyde stated it is possible to conduct a survey of licensees after the CLARB vote to see if the change to model law is adopted. Chairman Breckon agreed with Executive Officer Hyde and stated after the CLARB vote the Board should look at what allied professions are doing with regards to experience required for licensure.

With nothing further to address, Chairman Jon Breckon entertained a motion for adjournment.

MOTION: Board Member Opdahl made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Board Member Olberding seconded. All in favor, motion carried.

The meeting adjourned at 1:16 p.m. MT.
