DIVISION BUSINESS

Financial Update: Mr. Price presented the financial report.

Respectful Workplace Training: Respectful Workplace training was presented.

BOARD BUSINESS

Idaho Anti-Trafficking Coalition Presentation – Executive Director Jennifer Zielinski: Jennifer Zielinski, Idaho Anti-Trafficking Coalition gave the Board a presentation about the Idaho Anti-Trafficking Coalition and its services. She provided information on the different types of human trafficking and the current laws in Idaho surrounding trafficking and victims. The coalition provides a 24/7 crisis hotline that helps with housing, healthcare, relocation, and other needs of victims.

Board Elections: A motion was made and seconded to elect Joanna Robertson as Chair. The motion carried unanimously.

Title IV Update: Mr. Price informed the Board that there is still an injunction in effect that prohibits the enforcement of the Bare Minimum Rule. While this injunction remains in place, students will continue to be eligible for Title IV funding, notwithstanding the discrepancies between the school's graduation hour requirements and the State's licensing hour requirements.

Massage Establishment Licensure Update: Mr. Price notified the Board that proposed language was provided to the Governor's office about licensure for massage therapy establishments. He clarified sole practitioner therapists operating mobile businesses would not be required to obtain an establishment license.

School Presentation Update: Mr. Price updated the Board on staff changes and introduced Julie Brown as their new licensing specialist. The presentation is ready for Board and Staff members to deliver to massage therapy schools.

Veterans Affairs Standard of Practice Review: The Board was provided with a letter from Veterans Affairs with updates to their standards of practice. No action was taken.

Licensing Report: Lizzie Kukla provided the licensing report.
