BOARD BUSINESS

MID-AC Recommendations for Rules Review- Ms. Mahannah invited Dr. Chopski to provide an overview of the objectives of this review. Dr. Chopski stated that the purpose is to inform the Board of the recommendations of the Idaho Midwifery Advisory Committee, review the drafts, and public comments. She also stated that the public comment period will remain open and that in the next meeting, if the Board deems it appropriate, they may choose to proceed with moving the rules to proposed. The Board discussed public comments, after which, Ms. Beller presented the recommended draft language regarding IDAPA 24.26.01-Rules of Midwifery- Section 200 (Use of Formulary Drugs), Section 203 (Scope and Practice Standards), and Section 102 (Continuing Education Requirements). No action was taken.

NCSBN Delegate Discussion: The Board discussed delegate selections regarding the NCSBN annual meeting to be held in August. A motion was made and seconded to register Dr. Gibbons and Ms. Reichle as the delegates. The motion carried.

Public Comment:

Ms. Mahannah opened the floor for comments and testimony regarding the drafted rule chapters.

Lance Giles, Contract Lobbyist, Idaho Midwifery Council (IMC)- Commented that the IMC is in favor of the drafted updates to IDAPA 24.26.01-Rules of Midwifery- Section 200 (Use of Formulary Drugs).

No further public comment was received.

Adjourn

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 1:47 PM.

The next meeting is on 07/23/2026.
